Cole Land Transportation Museum Hosts Annual Trick or Treat Halloween Party

Bangor, ME – The Cole Land Transportation Museum is excited to announce its annual Trick or Treat Halloween Party, taking place on October 29th, from 4:00 PM to 7:00 PM. Families and children of all ages are invited to enjoy an evening of spooky fun as they trick or treat their way through the fully decorated museum.

This family-friendly event offers a unique experience, showcasing the museum in a festive, Halloween-themed atmosphere. Guests will be treated to a safe, indoor way to celebrate the tradition, all the while exploring the museum's exhibits in a new and seasonally spooky light.

"We love seeing the museum transformed into a spooky adventure," said Jennifer Munson, Director at the Cole Land Transportation Museum. "This event gives families a chance to enjoy Halloween in a safe, weather-proof environment while also getting to experience the museum in a completely new way, complete with candy and haunted decorations."

Costumes are highly encouraged, and there will be plenty of opportunities for candy, fun, and maybe even a few spooky surprises. Admission is $5 for adults, while children can participate for free.

Join us for this unforgettable evening of Halloween fun, and do not miss your chance to experience the museum like never before!
